GAMEDAY INFORMATION

Press Table: The La Salle women's basketball press row at Tom Gola Arena is opposite the bench. Accredited media should enter through the media entrance on the left side of the Hayman Center when facing the building.

Press Credentials: Requests for press credentials should be made in writing at least one week prior to the game. If time permits, credentials will be mailed. All other credentials should be picked up at the Press Gate.

Photographers: Photographers must have their photo passes visible at all times on the sidelines. All photographers must shoot from the baseline.

Press Parking: Parking is limited and you must call the Athletic Communications Office in advance to be on the parking list.

Press Services: Complete individual and team statistics are compiled by the Stat Man II computerized statistics program which is staffed by Harvey Pollack, Susan Senner and their crew of statisticians. Statistics will be distributed on press row at halftime and in the press and interview rooms after the game.

Post-Game Interviews: Coach Jon Miller will be in the interview room 10 minutes after the game. The visiting coach will follow Morris. Access to dressing rooms is determined on a per-game basis by each coach.

Telephones: Telephones are available in the press room for the media's use.

The 1998-99 La Salle University women's basketball media guide was produced and edited by Kevin Currie, Scott Leightman, Steve Majewski, Susan Senner and Bob Vetrone, Sr., with assistance from archivist Joe Grabenstein. Photography by Maurice Brown, Keith Krebs, Jerry Millevoi, Dave Yoblick and John Carabello. Design and printing by Host Communications, Inc. Lexington, Kentucky.

WHY WE'RE EXPLORERS

La Salle University's nickname — The Explorers — was erroneously bestowed by a sports writer covering a La Salle football game (La Salle played intercollegiate football from 1931-41) on campus sometime during the '30s. He thought that the school was named after the famed French explorer of North America.

In reality, the school was named after St. John Baptist de La Salle, the French educator and founder of the Christian Brothers. Despite the error, the nickname has remained.

BASKETBALL

Head Coach John Miller

John Miller enters his 13th season as La Salle University's women's basketball coach with 240 victories, more than half the total the Explorers' program has produced in its 26 years.

The 1997-98 mark of 15-13 continued Miller's record of having a winning record in every year and continued a La Salle streak of 14. Miller also has had six seasons with 20 or more victories.

Last season, the Explorers finished fifth in the Atlantic 10 West at 8-8. This was the first time in the Explorers' three years in the conference that they did not finish second. The Explorers own a 30-18 record in three seasons of conference action.

Although the team struggled in the Atlantic 10, La Salle was crowned Philadelphia Big 5 Champions by going 4-0. The only other time the Explorers accomplished that feat was the 1988-1989 season.

Under Miller's coaching, La Salle has captured five Philadelphia Big 5 championships and four Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) regular-season titles. During his tenure, the Explorers have made two NCAA Tournament appearances and one in the National Women's Invitational Tournament (NWIT) in Amarillo, Texas. At the close of the 1988-89 campaign, with a record of 28-3, the Explorers were ranked 18th in the final Associated Press poll.

Miller has been honored as the Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year and the MAAC Coach of the Year three times each and also has earned a Regional Converse Coach of the Year award.

During the 1990-91 season, Miller recorded his 100th La Salle win in a game that also was the 300th for the Explorers' women's program.

Before joining the La Salle staff, Miller coached extensively on the high school level. In 1976, Miller was named head coach of the Archbishop Ryan boys' team after serving as an assistant to "Speedy" Morris at Roman Catholic for five years. During his nine-year stint at Ryan, Miller twice was named the Philadelphia Catholic League Coach of the Year. From Ryan, Miller moved to Monsignor Bonner for one season where he closed his high school career with 150 victories.

Miller, a 1969 graduate of St. Charles Seminary, holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy. In 1976, he obtained a Master's degree in Guidance and Counseling from Villanova. Originally from Reading, PA, Miller and his wife, Emily, now reside in the Roxborough section of Philadelphia with their nine-year-old daughter, Katie.

Coach Miller has coached the top two scorers in school history.

Last season, John Miller led the Explorers to a 15-13 record, their 12th-straight winning season with Miller at the helm.

Assistant Coach Tom Lochner

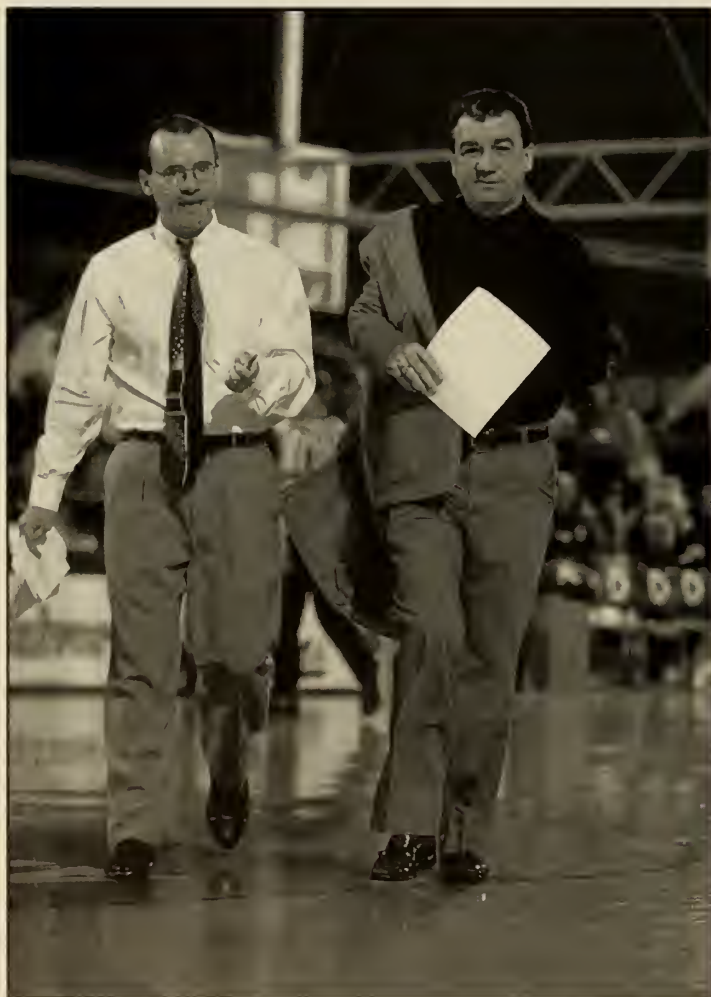

Tom Lochner is set for his 12th season as the top assistant in John Miller's coaching staff. Lochner met Miller at the NCAA Final Four in 1987 and joined the Explorers' staff for the 1987-88 season. He previously coached the girls basketball team at his Alma Mater, Bishop Gibbons High in Schenectady, NY, from 1980 to 1987. His first two years were spent teaching the junior varsity, followed by four years as the head coach.

During his head-coaching tenure, Bishop Gibbons' record was 88-13, and captured the 1986 New York State Championship (Large Division) with a 26-2 record. His team also won three sectional titles and Lochner was honored as New York State Section II Coach of the Year in 1985 and 1986.

In addition to coaching at the high school and college levels, Lochner has extensive summer camp experience, stressing fundamentals to the young campers. Tom holds two degrees from Temple University, a Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education/Athletic Administration (1989) and a Master's degree in Education (1996). He also has an Associate's degree in Marketing from Hudson Valley Community College in Troy, NY.

Lochner, wife Beth, son Curtis (born in December 1996), and daughter Samantha Rose (born in June 1998) reside in Willow Grove, PA, a suburb of Philadelphia.

Assistant coach Lochner discusses strategy with coach Miller.

Assistant Coaches

Chrissie Donahue

Chrissie Donahue enters her second season as assistant coach on John Miller's staff. The former power forward from Cardinal O'Hara High School started all 115 games in her career, the only player in La Salle women's basketball history to start every game over a four-year span.

Donahue scored 1,818 points, second on La Salle's all-time list to Jenn Cole's 1,875. She also finished with 914 rebounds, good for third on the all-time list. La Salle posted a 79-36 record in Donahue's four years.

Donahue was selected First-Team Atlantic 10 as a senior and a Second-Team Honoree as a junior. She was a three-time First-Team Big 5 selection, while earning Big 5 Player of the Year in 1994-95 and Big 5 Rookie of the Year in 1993-94.

Margit Rinke

Margit Rinke enters her second year as a graduate assistant under John Miller. She and Donahue were teammates on the successful Explorer teams from 1993-94 to 1996-97.

Rinke started all 28 games at the center position during her senior season, averaging 8.6 points and 5.0 rebounds. She played in 105 games during her La Salle career, making 48 starts, scoring 855 points, and grabbing 482 rebounds.

Rinke is pursuing a master's degree psychology.

Academic Achievement

La Salle Women's Basketball Among the Top Academic Teams

Once again the La Salle University women's basketball team achieved one of the highest grade point averages among Division I playing institutions, according to the Women's Basketball Coaches Associations (WBCA).

The Explorers' 3.508 GPA placed them second to fellow Atlantic-10 member Duquesne University (3.511) for the 1997-98 academic year. La Salle improved its GPA from the 3.501 mark of 1996-97, which was the highest in the nation.

"The players are not allowed to ask me questions in practice because I don't have the answers," quipped La Salle Head Coach John Miller. "I've always preached that we recruit the person more so than the player. The names of the people may change from year to year, but the personality stays the same. This just proves that when you recruit quality people, you get quality results on and off the court."

Adds La Salle's Director of Academic Support Services, Joe Gillespie, "It is no surprise to me the team finished this high again. Before the season I predicted the team's GPA would be higher, and it was. I knew the young ladies who returned from the '96-'97 team would continue their outstanding performances. It was obvious almost immediately when talking with and observing the new students that their attitude and commitment to everything we asked academically was right on target."

St. Bonaventure University, another Atlantic 10 team, placed eighth (3.270) in the top 25 list. On this year's schedule La Salle faces three of the top 25 academic teams: Duquesne, St. Bonaventure, and Bucknell University, which ranked fifth (3.337).

Last season, the Explorers finished 15-13, the team's 14th consecutive winning season.

1998-99 Preview

Forgive Coach John Miller if he seems to be experiencing déjà vu. For the second consecutive season, he has lost four starters. Gone are senior tri-captains Katie Wolfe, Sarah Haynes, and Sarah Weiss. This time, however, freshman and sophomores will enter the starting line up rather than juniors and seniors.

After a 15-13 (8-8, fifth place Atlantic 10 West) record in 1997-98, La Salle will look to recapture the form that saw the team rank among the best in the Atlantic 10 the previous two seasons. It was the first time in three years of conference action that the Explorers did not finish second. During that period, La Salle posted a 30-18 record.

It will not be easy for Miller to continue his streak of posting a winning record in each of his 12 seasons at La Salle University. He would have liked another year to fine-tune his strong sophomore class. But with the early graduation of junior center Carrie Jewett and the loss of junior forward Laura Newhard to a torn anterior cruciate ligament, the future is now. Except for walk-on senior guard Jill Weakland, the La Salle roster consists entirely of freshmen and sophomores.

"It's going to be a challenging year for us," Miller admitted. "But knowing the great character of the players on our team, I'm sure they're looking forward to the challenge. Hopefully, we will be able to avoid any other serious injuries. We are going to have to play with a lot of basketball intelligence."

Based on the Explorers' performance off the court, that shouldn't be a problem. During the 1997-98 academic year, La Salle scored high marks in the classroom. The team's 3.508 grade point average (GPA) ranked second in the nation behind fellow Atlantic 10 member Duquesne University (3.511) among Division I playing institutions, according to the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA). La Salle improved its GPA from 3.501 in 1996-97, which was the highest in the nation.

On the hardwood, the Explorers will count on sophomore guard Jen Zenszer, who was the first freshman to lead the team in scoring (11.3 ppg.) since 1975, to direct the attack. As a freshman Zenszer started 11 of 26 games, scored in double digits 13 times, and led or tied for the team lead in scoring nine times. She set the La Salle and Atlantic 10 records for most free throws in a game when she hit 17-of-17 from the foul line against Temple on January 25, 1998. Zenszer's outstanding freshman season earned her a place on the All-Big 5 second team. This year, she was selected to the Atlantic 10 Conference Pre-Season Third-Team.

Joining Zenszer in the backcourt is fellow sophomore Majorie Rhoads. As a part-time starter last season, Rhoads averaged 6.5 points and led La Salle in steals with 41.

Freshmen guards Mandy Dubbs and Suzanne Keilty also should see significant playing time.

Dubbs, redshirted last season because of a torn anterior cruciate ligament, averaged 16.8 points, 5.7 rebounds, and 4.6 assists her senior year at Pine Grove Area in Pine Grove, PA, where she earned All-State honors. Keilty averaged 19.3 points and eight rebounds at Our Lady of Mercy in Syosset, NY, and was a First Team All-New York State (Class C) selection.

In the frontcourt, La Salle will miss the experience of Jewett, who averaged 9.1 points and a team leading 4.4 rebounds per game and Newhard (6.2 ppg., 3.3 rpg.). The Explorers will try to establish an inside presence with sophomores Shannon McDade and Melissa Hindenlang and freshman Beth Hudak.

McDade averaged eight points and four boards per game as a freshman, while Hindenlang contributed 2.3 points and 3.7 boards in limited duty last season. Beth Hudak, a 6-2 freshman, averaged 19.3 points and 12.4 rebounds per game at Notre Dame High School in Easton, PA. Street & Smith and USA Today named her to their honorable mention All-American teams.

This year's Explorer squad includes three walk-ons: Weakland, sophomore forward Dana Gavaghan, and freshman guard Jani Wihs. All can expect to see game action. Wihs is a rare three-sport varsity player who also competes for the field hockey and lacrosse team. Gavaghan also is a multi-sport athlete. During the fall, she led the La Salle soccer team in assists (4) and was second in goals (4) and total points (12).

Miller and assistant coaches Tom Lochner, Chrissie Donahue, and Margit Rinke have a challenging job ahead. They must weather the growing pains of youth for the promise of a bright future.

1997-98 Review

1997-98 was a year of transition for the Explorers. Three senior tri-captains—Sarah Haynes, Katie Wolfe, and Sarah Weiss—and junior Carrie Jewett passed the torch to a strong freshman class that will lead La Salle into the 21st century.

The Explorers finished with a 15-13 overall record, including an 8-8 mark in conference action that placed them fifth in the Atlantic 10 West. It was the first time in three years of conference play that La Salle did not finish second. During that period, the Explorers posted a 30-18 record.

As their record suggests, the Explorers' season had its highs and lows. One of the brightest spots was La Salle's 80-31 demolition of Pennsylvania in game six. Tied for the seventh-largest margin of victory in school history, the win began a season-high, four-game winning streak in which the smallest margin of victory was 14 points and the average margin of victory was over 32.

The win also was La Salle's second in Philadelphia Big 5 play. Having already defeated Villanova, 66-61, the Explorers went on to sweep the city series with victories over Temple and St. Joseph's for head coach John Miller's fifth Big 5 championship.

As the season progressed, freshmen Jen Zenszer, Marjorie Rhoads, Shannon McDade, and Melissa Hindenlang saw more and more action. In La Salle's 84-67 victory at Temple on January 29, Zenszer exploded for a career-high 23 points. She would go on to be the first freshman since 1974-75 to lead the team in scoring (11.3 ppg.).

The Explorers finished the regular season strong, winning four of their last five games, and headed into the Atlantic 10 Tournament with a 14-12 record.

Another high point in La Salle's up-and-down season came in the tournament's opening-round game at Rhode Island. Trailing 57-56 with one second remaining, Wolfe hit a three-pointer to give the Explorers a nail-biting, 59-57 win.

La Salle bowed out of the Katie Wolfe led La Salle in free throw percentage (81.1%) and total points (303).

Sarah Haynes started all 28 games for the Explorers and matched her steady play with solid leadership.

tournament with a 66-51 loss at George Washington in the quarterfinals—the Explorers third defeat at the hands of the Colonials.

1998-99 marks the beginning of a new era in Explorer basketball. With Jewett lost to early graduation and junior Laura Newhard sidelined with a torn anterior cruciate ligament, the La Salle roster consists of just one senior—walk-on guard Jill Weakland. The remaining players are freshmen and sophomores.

With Mandy Dubbs, Beth Hudak, and Suzanne Keilty—all standout high school players—joining the team, Miller hopes to stretch his streak of posting a winning record in each of his seasons at La Salle to 13.

The foundation of the Atlantic 10 Conference's ascension to national prominence is solidified with an unwavering dedication to providing a broad-based, competitive athletic environment without sacrificing the high ideals of scholarship and sportsmanship. The University of Dayton, Duquesne University, Fordham University, The George Washington University, La Salle University, University of Massachusetts, University of Rhode Island, St. Bonaventure University, St. Joseph's University, Temple University, Virginia Tech, and Xavier University offer a rich blend of proud academic and athletic traditions to form an impressive athletic alliance.

"The Atlantic 10 continues to prosper through our members' firm commitment to their student-athletes and to the future of the Conference," says commissioner Linda Bruno, who has helped guide the Conference to prestige unparalleled in league history. "Each of our programs is dedicated to achieving the proper balance of excellence in both the classroom and on the playing field. The Atlantic 10 is proud of the accomplishments of our student-athletes but will continue to strive for even greater success."

The success the Atlantic 10 enjoyed last year was highlighted by the league placing five teams in the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament for the second time in as many years, with Rhode Island advancing to the within 30 seconds of the Final Four. A league record five men's basketball teams were ranked at one time or another last year. Three women's basketball teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament for the tenth time.

Additional highlights include the Massachusetts softball team advancing to the Women's College World Series for the third time since 1992, and the women's rowing team placing fourth in the NAAs.

Success in each of its championship sports has been the hallmark of the Atlantic 10 Conference and that was reinforced this past year with 20 teams and 17 individuals earning berths to postseason competition. All told, 249 teams have represented the Atlantic 10 Conference in postseason play since the 1976-77 season.

Atlantic 10 student-athletes excel in the classroom as well. The Atlantic 10 sponsors several academic awards programs, including Academic All-Conference teams in each of its championship sports and the Commissioner's Honor Roll, which honored an Atlantic 10 record 1,384 student-athletes with a 3.0 grade point average or better this past year. The league also cites a male and female Scholar-Athlete of the Year, and awards a pair of postgraduate scholarships to both male and female student-athletes who express a desire to continue their education.

On June 14, 1994, Linda Bruno was officially introduced as the Atlantic 10's fourth commissioner. As commissioner, Bruno has strengthened the Atlantic 10's membership with the additions of Dayton, Fordham, La Salle, and Virginia Tech, thus assuring the Conference's future. Bruno also negotiated a six-year television deal with ESPN/Creative Sports — the most lucrative and broad-based package in league history — which translates into the greatest amount of exposure ever for the Atlantic 10's athletic programs. She relocated the league office to Philadelphia, placing it in the center of the Atlantic 10's geographic footprint.

Under her leadership the Atlantic 10 has increased its championship schedule to 22 sports with the additions of women's rowing, men's and women's outdoor track & field, and women's lacrosse, beginning this year. Bruno also spearheaded the league's entrance into Division I football with the formation of the Atlantic 10 Football Conference in 1997. In addition, in an effort to recognize the athletic and academic achievements of all student-athletes, Bruno instituted the Commissioner's Honor Roll, which cites every Atlantic 10 student-athlete with a 3.0 gpa or better.

The Atlantic 10 Conference will crown champions in 22 sports this season: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, field hockey, men's golf, women's gymnastics, women's lacrosse, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track & field, women's rowing, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

1999 Women's Basketball Camps

Head Coach John Miller

John Miller has more than 20 years of experience running basketball camps. He is interested in the development of young people and his philosophy is to teach each player as an individual. Each camper will be treated this way. A personnel profile card will be kept on your daughter noting her competition against players of the same age and ability. This will allow your daughter to put her newly learned skills to use.

LASALLE

BASKETBALL

The University

La Salle University is a liberal arts institution that combines the best of all educational worlds. With approximately 3,000 undergraduates and nearly another 3,000 graduate students attending classes, the University offers a pleasant environment within close proximity to Philadelphia's cultural, social and historic centers.

Founded by the Christian Brothers in 1863, La Salle is named for St. John Baptist de La Salle, the patron saint of teaching. Starting as a one building academy in center city Philadelphia, La Salle is now a 110-acre campus in Philadelphia's Germantown section, six miles from center city.

The La Salle day and evening faculty numbers some 400, and the University offers nearly 50 programs of study. With a student-faculty ration of 14-to-1 and an average class size of 20, students can be assured of as much personal guidance as needed from faculty members. This commitment to the individual has always been a major tenet of the Christian Brothers' approach to education.

La Salle's curriculum requires the completion of 120 credits, but allows wide flexibility in choosing courses. A limited number of requirements in English composition, literature, philosophy and religion provide greater opportunity for depth outside the student's major field. The number of courses required by a department of its major never exceeds 17, leaving eight to 10 courses as free electives that may be used to build a strong minor/dual major or to diversity one's background.

Various independent study programs provide the students with greater options. A nationally-recognized Honors Program is available for gifted students. "La Salle in Europe" offers students the opportunity to spend their sophomore or junior year at the University of Fribourg, in Switzerland, receiving full academic credit at La Salle. Programs are also available for a semester or a year of study in Spain.

Among the major buildings on campus are: the Connelly Library; the Roland Holroyd Science Center with facilities for study and research in Biochemistry, Biology, Chemistry, Environmental Science, Geology and Psychology; the Olney Hall classroom building, and the College Union which houses offices for most student activities and clubs and is the main meeting place on campus.

The athletic department is housed in U.S. News & World Report has cited La Salle as one of the nation's leading regional universities.

Hayman Center, a building which underwent a $6.3 million renovation. The facility features a 4,000 seat basketball arena, includes a 1,700-seat Olympic-size swimming pool and diving area, three regulation-sized basketball courts, weight training and exercise areas, a sauna, squash courts and a medical training area.

La Salle students come from 33 states and 18 countries. The University houses approximately 1,800 resident students in 13 residence halls and three apartment complexes. More than 75 percent of the student body plan graduate or professional work in their fields, with more than 1,200 degrees conferred annually.

La Salle undergraduates have been awarded 50 Fulbright grants since 1970, one of the highest number presented to an institution in the Mid-Atlantic region. According to a recent survey, La Salle ranked in the top four percent nationally among private undergraduate institutions originating Ph.D.'s (33rd out of 877 colleges and universities).

Recently, La Salle has enjoyed increasing national attention, including:

- La Salle was rated the 11th Best Value in the northeastern United States in 1997 by U.S. News & World Report and was a leading regional university in the 1993, 1994, 1995 and 1996 editions of "America's Best Colleges."
- The New York Times, Money magazine and Barron's all selected La Salle to appear in their guides to the "best buys in college education."
- The influential Long Island newspaper, Newsday, referred to La Salle as a "university on the rise" in an article titled "Where the Hot Schools Are."
- Standard & Poor's ranked La Salle 10th among the nation's liberal arts college in the number of graduates who are top corporate leaders.
- La Salle was selected to appear in Peterson's Competitive Colleges, a profile of the schools that consistently accept the nation's best students.

• La Salle had the nation's fifth highest graduation rate (94 percent) among approximately 300 Division I schools for student on athletic scholarships who entered in 1987-88.

• Each year, over 90 percent of all students recommended by the Health Profession Committee have been offered entry into medical schools.

• Each year, recruiters representing nearly 200 companies and organizations visit La Salle's campus to conduct job interviews with graduating seniors.

Academic Support Services

Student-athletes involved in an intercollegiate athletic program are in a very unique position. They are here in the role of both student and athlete and it is essential that they meet the demands of each role in order to experience success at La Salle. The Program of Academic Support Services for Student-Athletes was designed to assist student-athletes in their adjustment to their unique role. Through academic advising and essential support services, the active involvement of the student-athlete in the educational process is encouraged and the balance between academic and athletic achievement is fostered.

OBJECTIVES

- To assist the student-athlete in balancing academic demands so that their work toward an academic degree is completed.
- To provide a growth environment so the student-athlete can gain independence and achievement in all facets of life.
- To enhance the student-athlete's years at La Salle through the utilization of campus resources and enrichment programs.
- To assist freshmen and transfer students in their first semester in the adjustment to the demands of college through the orientation program.
- To encourage excellence in academics and athletics so that the individual's experience at La Salle is a rich and rewarding one.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

The course selection sheet of each student-athlete is reviewed prior to fall, spring and summer registration to ensure that all requirements are being met to continue satisfactory progress toward a degree and to maintain athletic eligibility.

MONITORING OF CLASSROOM PROGRESS

In order to stay abreast of the academic status of our student-athletes, progress reports monitoring attendance, completion of assignments and test scores are requested of faculty members during the semester. These reports also indicate if the student might benefit from additional help in a specified skill area. Freshmen and other selected student-athletes also meet weekly with the academic support services staff to complete self-assessment reports detailing attendance, completion of assignments, class participation and any test or project scores received.

TUTORING

If it is determined that any student-athlete could benefit from additional assistance to meet the demands of their courses, special tutoring is arranged. Our student-athletes have also made extensive use of the Sheekey Writing and Study Skills Center, the Math Lab and the Computer Science labs where individualized assistance is provided in particular skill areas.

STUDY HALL

Study hall is an academic practice designed to provide structured time for the student-athlete to complete the demands of class work. A study hall is open throughout the day for the use of the student-athlete. In addition, a supervised study hall is held each evening, Monday through Thursday. Student-athletes are assigned to this evening study hall at the discretion of their coaches in order to assist them in developing the skills needed to manage their time efficiently and effectively.

COUNSELING

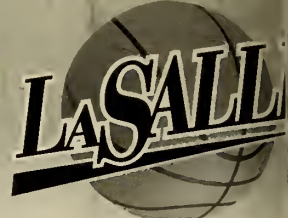

Academic, career and personal counseling is available through the Office of Academic Support Services as well as the La Salle University Counseling Center and the Career Planning and Placement Bureau. The Counseling Center also assists the Office of Academic Support Services with identifying particular learning needs of any student-athlete and recommending specific courses of action which can be implemented to help ensure the academic success of the student.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Throughout the course of the year, special programs designed to respond to the specific needs of the student-athlete are arranged. These programs cover a diverse array of topics to stimulate and encourage the development of the student-athlete as a whole person. In addition, special Study Skills workshops are offered in conjunction with the Sheekey Writing and Study Skills Center of La Salle University. An orientation program including such relevant topics as time management, anxiety, interpersonal skill development and university etiquette is provided through the semester.

Nicholas A. Giordano

University President

Longtime Board of Trustees' member Nicholas A. Giordano was elected Interim President July 1, becoming the second consecutive graduate to lead La Salle University.

Vice Chair of the Board of Trustees at La Salle, Giordano is serving as president until Brother Michael McGinniss, who is spearheading a fundraising drive at Christian Brothers University in Memphis, Tennessee, becomes full-time president at La Salle July 1, 1999.

"We're fortunate that Nicholas Giordano has agreed to serve as La Salle's interim president," said John Shea, Chairman of the University's Board of Trustees. "First as a student, then as a trustee, Nick has come to know what this school represents, in terms of providing a high quality education to our students. Nick's background as a financial leader, his commitment to various charities and boards, and his deep fondness for his alma mater, make him an ideal choice to lead the school at this time."

Giordano, a 1965 graduate of La Salle, has been a board member since 1981.

"For the past 37 years I have been associated with La Salle as a student, alumnus and trustee of the board," said Giordano. "My affection for this great university has grown stronger over the years, and my respect for its faculty, administration and students has never been deeper. The opportunity to serve as La Salle's interim president, while humbling, is also a great honor."

Giordano worked for Price Waterhouse & Co. after he graduated from La Salle. He worked at various brokerage houses in Philadelphia prior to becoming controller of the Philadelphia Stock Exchange in 1971. He became Vice President of Operations in 1971, Senior Vice President in 1975, Executive Vice President in 1976 and President in 1981 until he resigned in 1997.

During Giordano's tenure as CEO, the equity of the exchange's membership nearly tripled, significant upgrading of its technology and trading systems took place and the Exchange's international presence was expanded. Giordano testified before Congress and the SEC on important legislation affecting the trading of securities, including his support for the Unlisted Trading Privilege Bill, which allowed the Philadelphia Stock Exchange to trade NYSE new listings almost immediately, versus the previous waiting period of up to 60 days.

Giordano is also Chairman of the Board of Mount Saint Joseph Academy and has been in leadership positions with such charitable organizations as the National Adoption Center, United Way, and Business Leaders Organized for Catholic Schools. He is a board member for Independence Blue Cross, the Greater Philadelphia Urban Affairs Coalition, and the Police Athletic League of Philadelphia.

He has served on the boards of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, the Philadelphia Family of YMCA's, the National Italian American Foundation, and the World Affairs Council.

Giordano has been honored for his work at La Salle with the school's 1996 Leadership Award and received the Fournier Award for Distinguished Service from Mount Saint Joseph Academy. In addition, he received Villanova University's Beta Gamma Award for Achievement in 1990 and the National Italian American Foundation's Achievement Award in 1988.

He and his wife, Joanne, have three children, all born on the same day.

Nicholas A. Giordano, longtime Board of Trustees' member, was elected Interim President July 1, becoming the second consecutive graduate to lead La Salle University.

Athletics Director

A new era in La Salle Athletics began when Dr. Thomas Brennan became the school's fifth Director of Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreation on September 18, 1997.

He guides the school's 23-sport Division I athletic program as the university enters its fourth season in the Atlantic 10, begins football's second season after a 56-year hiatus and will initiate full-time, home court play at the Gola Arena in the renovated Hayman Center, a project that increased seating capacity from 1,000 to 4,000.

"La Salle has proven successful in the Atlantic 10, and I am excited to lead the department," Brennan said. "You must have integrity in your program and you must have a program which emphasizes the educational mission of athletics. "You must also strive for excellence in the athletic arena. I know that these are all important at La Salle and that is what attracted me."

Since coming to La Salle, Brennan has reorganized many areas within the Athletic Department, has formed an Explorer Club, a fundraising group of staff, alumni and friends, and has helped the school gain entrance into the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Football League effective with the 1999 season.

Brennan was the Athletic Director at San Jose State University from 1990-97, moving the school from the Big West Conference to the Western Athletic Conference (WAC). During his administration, graduation rates for student-athletes double and participation by women in intercollegiate athletics nearly doubled as the university was recognized for Title IX compliance efforts by the Office of Civil Rights of the U.S. Department of Education.

In addition, annual athletic contributions more than doubled and $6 million was raised for a new field house and administrative complex.

Brennan was the Director of Athletics at Loyola College in Baltimore from 1986-90. During that time, he successfully moved Loyola from the Northeast Conference into the MAAC. The Greyhounds became national contenders in men's and women's lacrosse and men's soccer. The men's and women's basketball programs both experienced significant improvements. Today, Loyola is considered a top regional Athletics Program. While at Loyola, Brennan was a member of the State Board of Directors for the Maryland Special Olympics.

From 1980-86, Brennan worked at the University of New Mexico, first as Assistant Athletics Director and then Associate Athletics Director. At his departure, he oversaw fundraising, media relations, sponsorship, marketing, sales and athletic alumni efforts. Prior to that, he oversaw the NCAA Compliance and the Academic Support areas of the department. Brennan also earned a faculty position in the school's Graduate Program in Athletic.

His athletic administration career began at Syracuse University, where he was Academic Coordinator for the athletic department, serving as a liaison with the school's central administration, deans, department heads and coaches. Syracuse was recognized by the NCAA as having one of the top 10 student-athlete graduation rates in the country.

Brennan is a 1973 graduate of LeMoyne College in Syracuse, NY and went on to earn Master's and Doctoral degrees in Higher Education Administration from Syracuse University. A native of Brooklyn, NY, Brennan and his wife Ellen are the parents of Maggie (10), Tim (8) and Kate (4).

Tom Brennan is entering his third year as Director of Athletics.

Athletics Staff

Tom Meier - Associate Director of Athletics

Meier has been the Associate Athletic Director since 1991 and a member of the athletic department since 1976. He served as Interim Athletic Director from May 1997 -

October 1997. Before his appointment as Associate Athletic Director, Meier served as the Director of Intramurals and the Assistant Athletic Director.

Born and raised in Easton, PA, Meier earned a B.A. in Psychology from Dickinson College and a master's degree in physical education at Temple University. He played varsity basketball and baseball in both high school and college and lists golf among his hobbies, along with carpentry and camping.

Meier has resided in Jenkintown since 1980 and he and his wife, Judy, have three children - Shelley, Kyle and Zachery.

Peter J. D'Orazio - Assistant Athletic Director

Peter J. D'Orazio has been with the La Salle family for sixteen years. He has recently been appointed to the position of Assistant Athletic Director for Athletic Advancement. A graduate of La Salle College in 1981, D'Orazio majored in Criminal Justice. He went on to complete his master's in Recreation, Administration, and Supervision from Temple University.

D'Orazio became Assistant Facility Director at La Salle in 1982 and in 1985 assumed the responsibilities as the Director of Intramurals. In 1989, he was given additional responsibilities as Ticket Manager for the men's basketball team.

Currently an advisor for the Sigma Phi Lambda, D'Orazio has been active in the fraternity since his undergraduate days at La Salle.

D'Orazio's love of La Salle basketball stems back to his days as the men's basketball manager in 1977-1981, with teams that had two NCAA appearances.

D'Orazio is the chair of the City 6 Extramural committee and an active member of NIRSA (National Intramural Recreational Sports Association).

In addition to sports, D'Orazio lists cooking, music, gardening, and golf as interests. Currently he resides in Glenside, PA with his wife Fran and three daughters - Rebecca, Annaliese, and Celeste.

Kevin Currie - Athletic Communications

A 1997 graduate of La Salle University, Kevin Currie took the reins in the Athletic Communications in September.

Currie has worked in the Sports Information Department for over two years, working specifically with the baseball team and men's and women's basketball teams. Currie also worked in the office as a student from 1995-97.

He is responsible for coordinating the publicity efforts for the Explorers' 23 sports, setting up interviews and serving as editor of athletic publications.

As an undergraduate he interned in the sports department of WPVI, Channel 6, the ABC affiliate in Philadelphia.

Currie's hobbies include golf and sports. He is single and resides in Havertown.

Jeannine Calhoun - Senior Women's Administrator

Jeannine Calhoun is in her first year as the Senior Woman Administrator for the La Salle University Athletic Department. Calhoun, formerly Cridge, played soccer at La Salle from 1989-92.

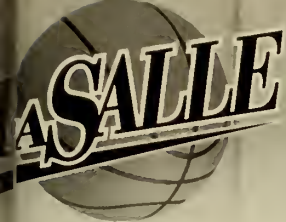

A 1993 La Salle graduate, Calhoun was a 1992 Rhodes Scholar nominee and participated in the Campus Ministry in its AIDS Outreach Program and on the Homeless Committee. She was awarded the Richard Lurtz Memorial Award for the English student who most exemplified the qualities necessary to become an effective teacher. She was also a member of the Lambda Tau International Honors Society for literature students.

Jeannine was married in November 1998 to Chris Calhoun and they reside in Ewing, NJ.
